

TYBER MEDICAL, LLC: PURCHASE ORDER TERMS & CONDITIONS

The terms and conditions on this web site (the "Site") govern the purchase order (including any attachments provided in connection therewith, the "PO") that has been transmitted (via facsimile, e-mail or other means) to you ("Supplier") by Tyber Medical LLC ("TM") or one of its affiliates identified in the PO ("Buyer"). Notwithstanding any prior dealings between Buyer and Supplier, the PO is expressly made conditional on, and Buyer expressly limits Supplier's provision of any goods or services set forth in the PO to, the terms and conditions in the Agreement (as defined below).

By accepting the PO and/or starting performance, shipping any goods or furnishing any services (or providing any deliverable arising therefrom) in connection with the PO, Supplier acknowledges that Supplier has read, understands, and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement. If Supplier objects to any such terms and conditions, Supplier shall (a) notify Buyer in writing within three days after its receipt of the PO and (b) withhold acceptance of the PO and not start any performance, ship any goods or furnish any services (or provide any deliverable arising therefrom) in connection with the PO until/unless such objection is settled in writing signed by Buyer and Supplier.

The Site should not be bookmarked because these terms and conditions, to the extent applicable, are specific to the PO and may hereafter be revised, from time to time, by Buyer. Revised terms and conditions will be posted on the Site and, if applicable, will be immediately effective for POs issued thereafter. Supplier should read the terms and conditions applicable to each PO that Supplier receives because by accepting such PO or starting performance, shipping any goods from the PO, or furnishing any services (or providing any deliverable arising therefrom) after a revised version of the terms and conditions on the Site has been posted, Supplier will be deemed to have accepted the revised version with regard to the PO.

1. Entire Agreement; Amendments. (a) It is the mutual desire and intent of Buyer and Supplier to provide certainty as to their respective rights and remedies against each other by defining the extent of their mutual undertakings. Accordingly, the PO and the signed agreement between Buyer or its affiliate, and Supplier or its affiliate, (i) that is in effect at the time the PO is issued, (ii) that contains a provision indicating that such signed agreement is the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and (iii) under which the PO is issued, based on the subject matter of the PO or a statement in the PO expressly identifying such signed agreement (e.g., supply agreement or services agreement), or if no such signed agreement exists, then the PO and these terms and conditions (in either case, the "Agreement") (1) contain the entire understanding of Buyer and Supplier with respect to the subject matter of the PO and incorporate all representations, warranties, covenants, commitments and understandings on which Buyer and Supplier have relied, and neither party makes any other representations, warranties, covenants, commitments or understandings; and (2) supersede all previous representations, warranties, covenants, commitments and understandings between Buyer and Supplier, written or oral, including any terms in an estimate, an offer or other similar document, with respect to the subject matter of the PO. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the performance of work under a PO that requires GxP conditions, Supplier shall, at Buyer's request, enter into a quality agreement related to such work.

(b) No modification, amendment or waiver of any term or condition in the PO or herein shall be effective, nor shall any additional or different terms or conditions, whether set forth in an invoice, confirmation, acceptance, shrink-wrap license, click wrap license, online terms of use or service or elsewhere, or pursuant to any course of dealing, usage of the trade or Buyer's acceptance of any goods or services, be effective, unless set forth in a writing signed by Buyer and Supplier.

2. Notices. All communications relating to the PO, to be effective, shall be addressed, if from Supplier to Buyer, to the Buyer's representative, and if from Buyer to Supplier, to the Supplier's representative, identified in the PO or as otherwise provided to the other party in writing. Any communications transmitted via facsimile or electronically (e.g., via the Internet (including but not limited to EDI, cXML, e-mail)) (a) shall be considered a "writing" or "in writing," (b) shall be deemed "signed" if a signature is affixed that is valid in accordance with applicable law (including a valid electronic signature) and (c) will constitute an "original" when printed. Communications introduced as evidence on paper will be admissible to the same extent and under the same conditions as other business records originated and maintained in documentary form and admissibility shall not be contested on the basis that the communication was not originated or maintained in documentary form.

3. Goods and Services set forth in the PO. Supplier shall (a) provide to Buyer the goods and services set forth in the PO; (b) keep Buyer advised of the status of the PO; (c) permit Buyer or its representatives to review and observe, from time to time upon reasonable notice, Supplier's progress under or performance in connection with the PO; and (d) provide Buyer with such reports as are appropriate to the nature of the goods and services set forth in the PO and as may be reasonably requested by Buyer from time to time.

4. PRICE AND DELIVERY – Supplier shall furnish the items called for by the PO in accordance with the prices and delivery stated on the face of the PO. All prices include all applicable taxes, except sales tax which is separately shown where applicable.

Buyer may return or store at Supplier's expense any items delivered more than thirty days in advance of the delivery date specified for such items.

5. Inspection. Buyer, its customers, higher tier contractors and the (US Government) applicable regulatory authorities may, at all reasonable times, inspect and test any facilities where work on the items specified in the PO is performed, including the facilities of Supplier and Supplier's suppliers and subcontractors, and inspect all applicable records (at any such facility) related to any items covered by a PO. Supplier shall provide, without additional charge, all reasonable facilities and assistance for such inspection and tests. All goods and deliverables are subject to final review, inspection and acceptance by Buyer notwithstanding any payment or initial inspection. Final inspection will be made by Buyer within a reasonable time after receipt of goods or deliverables. Final inspection and acceptance shall be at destination unless otherwise specified in the PO. All inspection and production records related to items covered by the PO shall be available during the performance of the PO and in the future. If the Supplier decides to destroy said records, they must first notify Buyer in writing. Buyer then may take possession of these records.

6. Non-Conforming Goods or Services; Late Delivery; Replacement Personnel. (a) Buyer reserves the right to refuse any goods or services and to cancel all or any part of the PO if Supplier does not, or goods or services provided by Supplier to Buyer do not, conform to any applicable industry standards or practices, any applicable specifications, drawings, samples, descriptions or any other similar criteria in the PO or otherwise provided to Supplier by Buyer (the "Specifications") or any terms and conditions set forth in the PO and herein. Acceptance of any part of the shipment of goods or any part of the services shall not bind Buyer to accept any non-conforming goods or non-conforming services simultaneously provided by Supplier, nor deprive Buyer of the right to reject any previous or future non-conforming goods or services. Buyer may, if it rejects any non-conforming goods, return such goods to Supplier at Supplier's expense for transportation both ways, and Supplier shall not deliver to Buyer any replacement or substitution goods for such rejected goods unless so authorized by Buyer.

(b) The delivery of goods and services shall strictly comply with the delivery date or delivery schedule, if any, provided to Supplier by Buyer. If at any time it appears Supplier will not meet such delivery date or schedule, Supplier shall promptly notify Buyer in writing of reasons for, and the estimated duration of, the delay. If requested by Buyer, Supplier shall ship such delayed goods by means to avoid or minimize delay to the maximum extent possible, including rerouting any shipment if appropriate and the use of a dedicated motor carrier or air freight, and any added costs shall be borne by Supplier.

(c) With respect to any personnel assigned by Supplier to provide goods or services to Buyer, Buyer reserves the right to request for any lawful reason whatsoever the removal or reassignment of any such personnel, which right shall not relieve Supplier of any responsibility it has for the PO. Supplier shall as soon as possible thereafter provide replacement personnel satisfactory to Buyer. Supplier shall not, however, leave any position(s) without staffing acceptable to Buyer during any replacement assessment period(s).

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer may cancel the PO and seek any other remedies available in accordance with applicable law, including cover and incidental and consequential damages from Supplier if Supplier does not, or goods or services provided by Supplier to Buyer do not, conform to the PO and these terms and conditions, including delivery of goods or services that do not strictly comply with the Specifications or the delivery date or schedule, if any, provided to Supplier by Buyer.

7. CHANGES – Buyer may at any time, by written change order, suspend performance in whole or in part, make changes in drawings, designs, specification, method of shipment or packing, or time or place of delivery or require additional or diminished work. If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for performance of the PO, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the contract price or delivery dates or both, and the PO shall be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim for adjustment hereunder shall conclusively be deemed to be waived unless asserted in writing (including the amount of the claim), and delivered to the Buyer within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by Supplier of the change order. If the cost of the property made obsolete or excess as a result of change is paid by Buyer, Buyer may prescribe the manner of disposition of such property. Buyers engineering and technical personnel may from time to time render assistance to Supplier concerning the items or service to be furnished pursuant to a PO, but such personnel are not authorized to change the items ordered or the provisions of the PO. No change order will be binding on Buyer unless issued by an authorized representative of Buyer’s purchasing office. Nothing herein shall excuse Supplier from proceeding with the PO as changed.

8. Cancellation. Buyer may cancel the PO at any time and for any reason upon written notice to Supplier. In the event of such cancellation, Supplier shall comply with any directions given by Buyer in such notice with respect to the goods and services in the PO and cease all other shipment and delivery of goods and services with respect to the PO. Within 45 days from the effective date of such cancellation, Supplier shall provide to Buyer all material, drawings, work-in-progress and co-developed intellectual property (in the state of completion or non-completion in which they exist on the date of cancellation) and submit an invoice to Buyer for all goods and services provided by Supplier and accepted by Buyer in accordance with the PO prior to cancellation, but only to the extent relating to such goods or services for which Supplier has not already submitted an invoice to Buyer. Buyer agrees to pay all undisputed amounts in accordance with the PO and these terms and conditions. In no event shall Buyer be responsible for any amounts in the aggregate greater than (a) the total that would have been due under the PO or (b) the value of the work done by Supplier in accordance with the PO prior to cancellations, whichever is less.

9. Invoice. Unless Buyer otherwise informs Supplier, Supplier shall issue a separate invoice for each shipment of goods delivered by Supplier and for each set of completed services. Supplier shall not issue any invoices before the goods or services are delivered to Buyer. Supplier shall invoice Buyer in accordance with this PO and include on all invoices (a) the PO number; (b) a description of goods and/or services provided; (c) the price, including a detailed description of the number of hours worked and fee per hour, if services are provided based on time and material pricing; and (d) expenses and pass-through costs approved by Buyer, including details around such costs. Buyer shall not be obligated to pay any amounts not properly invoiced within 90 days after goods and/or services are provided, including any pass-through expenses that otherwise would have been reimbursable in accordance with the PO.

10. Payments. Payment terms will be net 60 days after Buyer's receipt of an undisputed invoice from Supplier, provided however, the actual payment to Supplier from Buyer or its designee will not be made until the next scheduled payment run Except for amounts expressly set forth in the PO, Buyer shall not be responsible for any (a) other charges, including charges for delivery, parts or services and (b) expenses of Supplier or any mark-ups on any expenses of Supplier.

11. Warranty. (a) Notwithstanding any other representation, warranty or agreement to the contrary, Supplier unconditionally represents and warrants the following: (i) the goods and services supplied pursuant to the PO shall be of merchantable quality, conform to applicable industry standards and practices and the Specifications, be suitable for Buyer's intended uses and purposes in the ordinary course of its business and be free from defects in design, material and workmanship; (ii) all services provided by Supplier shall be provided by qualified personnel reasonably skilled and trained in the performance of the services and in a workmanlike and professional manner; (iii) any documentation provided to Buyer by Supplier shall meet reasonable standards of clarity and detail; (iv) Supplier, the goods and services provided to Buyer and the use thereof by Buyer shall not infringe on any party's intellectual property rights, including any party's confidential information, trade secrets, copyrights or patents; (v) Supplier is currently under no obligation to any party, nor will Supplier enter into any obligation with any party, that could interfere with Supplier delivering the goods or services in the PO; and (vi) Supplier shall comply with, and the goods and services provided by Supplier shall be in compliance with, all federal, state and municipal statutes, laws, ordinances and regulations, including those relating to the environment, occupational safety and health, labor standards, assembly and supply of the goods, United States Food and Drug Administration (including compliance with good manufacturing practices), International Standards Organization Rules 9,000 et seq. and any permits, licenses and certifications Supplier is required to have.

(b) If Supplier, the goods and services provided to Buyer or the use thereof by Buyer infringes on any party's intellectual property rights, including any party's confidential information, trade secrets, copyrights or patents, the sale or use of such goods or services is enjoined, Supplier shall, at its expense and option, either procure for Buyer the right to continue to use such goods or services, replace such goods or services with equivalent non-infringing goods or services or modify such goods or services so they become equivalent non-infringing goods or services. The foregoing, however, shall not be construed to limit or exclude any other claims or remedies that Buyer may assert.

(c) All representations and warranties shall run to Buyer, its customers and the users of the goods or services or products into which such goods or services may be incorporated. All third party warranties and representations obtained by or applicable to Supplier in connection with any good and services in the PO are hereby deemed provided, in addition, for the benefit of Buyer, its affiliates and their users and customers. Nothing in this clause shall be construed as limiting in any way Supplier's other warranties to Buyer.

12. Indemnification. Supplier agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, its affiliates (and its and their respective directors, personnel and agents) against any and all losses, claims, liabilities, damages and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorney's fees, (collectively, "Claims") in connection with or arising out of the following: (a) any negligent or willful misconduct of Supplier, its personnel, agents, consultants or subcontractors; or (ii) Supplier's (including its personnel, agents, consultants or subcontractors) breach of any provision of the PO or these terms and conditions.

13. Limitation of Liability. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL BUYER OR ITS AFFILIATES BE LIABLE FOR CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, MULTIPLIED OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS, WHETHER FORESEEABLE OR UNFORESEEABLE, OR PREJUDGMENT INTEREST OR ATTORNEYS' FEES OR COSTS BASED ON CLAIMS OF SUPPLIER OR ANY OTHER PARTY ARISING OUT OF BREACH OR FAILURE OF EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTY, BREACH OF CONTRACT, MISREPRESENTATION, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY IN TORT, FAILURE OF ANY REMEDY TO ACHIEVE ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE, OR OTHERWISE. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FORM (e.g., CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) IN WHICH ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE ACTION MAY BE BROUGHT,

IN NO EVENT WILL BUYER OR ITS AFFILIATES BE LIABLE FOR DAMAGES OR LOSSES THAT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE GREATER OF (a) THE AMOUNT DUE FROM BUYER AS SET FORTH IN THE PO BUT NOT ALREADY PAID TO SUPPLIER FOR THE GOODS OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY SUPPLIER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PO AND THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OR (b) $1000. THIS SECTION WILL NOT APPLY ONLY WHEN AND TO THE EXTENT THAT APPLICABLE LAW SPECIFICALLY REQUIRES LIABILITY DESPITE THE FOREGOING DISCLAIMER, EXCLUSION AND LIMITATION.

14. Insurance. For the period beginning when Supplier accepts the PO and/or starts performance, ships any goods or furnishes any services (or provides any deliverable arising therefrom) in connection with the PO and ending at least 4 years after Supplier completes the PO in full or the PO was cancelled by Buyer, Supplier shall, at its own expense, maintain with a reputable insurer (and provide written certificate(s) of insurance to Buyer if and when requested) reasonable and customary insurance coverage, including, but not limited to, (a) worker's compensation statutory coverage as required by the laws of the applicable jurisdiction, and (b) commercial general liability insurance including coverage for product liability in the minimum amount of $2 million per occurrence in respect of claims for any losses, costs and expenses arising out of or relating to Supplier furnishing the goods, deliverables and/or services under the PO. The commercial general liability insurance shall include worldwide coverage and include Buyer and its affiliates, and their directors, officers and employees, as Additional Named Insureds. The certificate(s) of insurance will include the agreement for the insurer to give Buyer written notice at least 30 days prior to the effective date of any cancellation, lapse or material change in the policy, and will contain a waiver of subrogation in favor of Buyer and its affiliates, and their directors, officers and employees.

15. Rights to Inventions; Copyrights. (a) Buyer will be the exclusive owner of all deliverables created by Supplier in connection with or during the performance of the PO (the "Deliverables"), any works based on or derived from such deliverables ("Derivatives"), and any ideas, concepts, inventions or techniques that Supplier may conceive or first reduce to practice in connection with or during the performance of the PO ("Deliverable Concepts") or any derivative of, or through use of, any Buyer Provided Materials (as defined below) (collectively, with the Deliverables, Derivatives, and Deliverable Concepts, "Buyer Materials") and all intellectual property rights therein, including patents, copyrights, trade secrets, trademarks, moral rights, and similar rights of any type under the laws of any governmental authority (collectively, "Intellectual Property Rights").

(b) (i) All copyrightable Buyer Materials created by Supplier in connection with or during the performance of the PO shall be considered a "work made for hire" for Buyer, (ii) Buyer shall be considered the author of the Buyer Materials for purposes of copyright and (iii) all worldwide right, title and interest therein shall be the property of Buyer as the party specially commissioning such work, in each case except to the extent (x) not permitted under applicable law or (y) the designation of Buyer Materials as a "work made for hire" would establish an employment relationship under applicable law between Buyer and Supplier.

(c) To the extent any Buyer Materials are not "work made for hire," or to the extent that the Buyer does not otherwise acquire ownership of any copyrights, and with respect to all other Intellectual Property Rights, Supplier hereby irrevocably assigns to Buyer for no additional consideration, and shall cause its personnel to irrevocably assign to Buyer, all right, title and interest in and to the Buyer Materials and all Intellectual Property Rights therein and thereto, including the right to sue, recover damages and obtain other relief from other persons for any past, present and future infringement, dilution, misappropriation, or other violation of or conflict with any of those

Intellectual Property Rights. To the extent such assignment of rights and ownership is invalid or any of the foregoing rights, including so-called "moral rights" or rights of "droit moral," may be inalienable, Supplier agrees to waive and agrees not to exercise such rights, and if such waiver and agreement are deemed invalid, to grant to Buyer and its designees the exclusive, transferable, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide and royalty free right to make, use, market, modify, distribute, transmit, copy, sell, practice, and offer for sale and import the Buyer Materials and any process, technology, software, article, equipment, system, unit, product or component part covered by the Deliverable Concepts or a claim of any patent in any part of the Deliverable Concepts. At Buyer's request, Supplier will execute any instrument, or obtain the execution of any instrument, including from any employee or contractor, that may be appropriate to assign the rights to Buyer in accordance with this section or perfect such rights in Buyer's name. If Supplier fails to execute any assignment in accordance with this section within fifteen calendar days after a request by Buyer, Supplier hereby appoints Buyer as Supplier's attorney in fact for the sole purpose of executing any such assignment on behalf of Supplier to Buyer and Supplier agrees to be bound thereby.

(d) Supplier shall include on the face of all copyrightable material prepared for Buyer a copyright notice identifying Buyer and the year of publication in legible form. Supplier shall provide Buyer with all relevant or necessary design drawings, source code and other documents detailing the Intellectual Property Rights with respect to the Buyer Materials. Except in connection with the PO to provide the goods or services to Buyer, Supplier shall not use any Intellectual Property Rights with respect to the Buyer Materials in any manner or for any reason. Without limiting the foregoing, Supplier agrees that neither Supplier nor any of its affiliates shall sell or distribute, or authorize the sale or distribution by any third party of, any goods or services using the Intellectual Property Rights with respect to the Buyer Materials to any party other than Buyer.

16. Software. If the goods set forth in the PO include any software (including pursuant to a software-as-a-service offering), related documentation and/or updates thereto (collectively, "Software") the following terms and conditions apply:

(a) Supplier shall retain all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Software. Supplier hereby grants to Buyer and its affiliates a perpetual (unless otherwise limited in the PO to a specific duration), worldwide, non-exclusive license to access and use the Software for the business purposes of Buyer and its affiliates. If the PO limits the Software to use by a certain number of users, then Buyer may replace a user with another user from time to time, provided that the then-current number of users using the Software does not exceed such number. If Supplier determines that Buyer and its affiliates have exceeded rights to the Software in the PO through increased usage that is otherwise in accordance with these terms and conditions, Supplier shall promptly notify Buyer in writing of such excess usage and Buyer shall thereafter promptly eliminate such excess usage. If Buyer does not eliminate such excess usage, Supplier's exclusive remedy shall be to invoice Buyer proportionally for such excess usage using the pricing set forth in the PO.

(b) Buyer and its affiliates may (i) make a reasonable number of backup or archive copies of any Software provided by Supplier and (ii) permit one or more third parties to exercise the rights granted to Buyer and its affiliates hereunder, provided that any such third party may only use the Software to provide goods to or perform services for Buyer and its affiliates. Except as expressly permitted herein, Buyer and its affiliates shall (i) not reverse engineer, decompile or otherwise discover the source code of the Software; (ii) not remove any copyright, trademark or other proprietary rights notices in the Software; and (ii) reproduce such notices on any copies of the Software. Supplier shall electronically deliver the Software such that no tangible media passes to Buyer..

17. Government Contracting. Supplier represents that the price it is charging is not in excess of the ceiling prices, if any, established by any government agency. If Supplier is notified that the services or goods covered by the PO are ordered by Buyer under a United States government contract, Supplier agrees that federal statutes and regulations applicable to Buyer as a government contractor are accepted and binding on Supplier insofar as required by statute, regulation or the provisions of the government contract.

18. Force Majeure. Supplier and Buyer, as the case may be, shall be excused for delays in performance or failure of performance to the extent arising from causes beyond such party's reasonable control, including without limitation strikes, wars, fires, acts of terror or acts of God, such as floods and earthquakes. In the event of any such event or condition, the party whose performance is excused hereunder shall notify the other party promptly thereof and shall make diligent efforts to perform at its earliest opportunity. If Supplier's performance is excused hereunder, Buyer may cancel the PO and Supplier agrees to provide to Buyer the assistance and information necessary for Buyer to make, have made, or otherwise procure replacement goods and services.

19. Shipping Terms. Unless Buyer otherwise informs Supplier, delivery of goods is to be F.O.B. Supplier's dock, unless otherwise specified in the PO. If Buyer and Supplier mutually agree that goods are to be shipped F.O.B. shipping point, and Buyer has not designated routing, Supplier shall ship goods via the most economical method that will meet the delivery date provided to Supplier by Buyer. Supplier shall provide an itemized packing list to Buyer for all shipments referencing the appropriate order number. Bills of lading, if any, shall also reference the appropriate order number. All items shall be packaged, marked and otherwise prepared in accordance with Good Commercial Practices to obtain lowest transportation rates. Supplier shall mark on container handling and loading instruction, shipping information, order, item and account number, shipment date, and names and addresses of Supplier and Buyer.

20. Transportation Liability. Supplier agrees that in any case where freight regulations covering goods transported by common carrier establish a maximum limit on the carrier's liability for loss or damage suffered in transit, Supplier will be liable to Buyer for any loss or damage in excess of such maximum limit.

21. Confidentiality; No Publicity. (a) Supplier shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer, originate any publicity (including any news release or public announcement) nor use any logos, trademarks, service marks or names of Buyer or any of its affiliates.

(b) Supplier shall not, without the prior written consent of Buyer, disclose to any third party Confidential Information (as defined below) or use any such Confidential Information for any purpose other than in connection with providing to Buyer the goods and/or services set forth in the PO. "Confidential Information" shall mean any information that is not already in the public domain or independently developed or obtained by Supplier relating to the following: the existence of the relationship with Buyer; Buyer's purchasing systems or practices (including, without limitation, descriptions of purchased items, quantities purchased and prices paid); the nature of the services performed or deliverables or goods delivered under the PO; or any data, designs or any other information relating to Buyer or its affiliates or their businesses, including the Buyer Provided Materials (as defined below). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Supplier may disclose Confidential Information (i) to Supplier's employees having a need to know such information in connection with Supplier's performance of the PO or (ii) to comply with applicable laws, court orders or government regulations, provided, in such case Supplier promptly provides notice thereof to Buyer prior to any disclosure to allow Buyer to comment thereon and to seek a protective order or similar relief. Supplier agrees that it will take appropriate action by instruction, agreement or otherwise with its employees who are permitted access to Confidential Information to notify them of the obligations hereunder. No right, title, interest or license to Supplier is either granted or implied under any trademark, patent, copyright or any other intellectual property right by the disclosure of the Confidential Information hereunder. Upon Buyer's request at any time, all documents and other material containing Confidential Information, and any other data, designs, or other information furnished to Supplier (and copies thereof), shall be returned to Buyer or destroyed, as directed by Buyer.

22. Buyer's Property. "Buyer Provided Materials" means tools, equipment, samples, specimens, compounds or any other materials of every description provided to Supplier, or paid for, by or on behalf of Buyer. All Buyer Provided Materials, any replacement thereof and any materials affixed or attached thereto shall be and remain the property of Buyer. All Buyer Provided Materials and Buyer Materials shall be safely stored separate and apart from Supplier's property. Supplier shall not substitute any property for Buyer's property and shall not use such property except in filling Buyer's purchase orders. Such property while in Supplier's custody or control shall be held at Supplier's risk, shall be kept insured by Supplier at Supplier's expense in an amount equal to the replacement cost with loss payable to Buyer and shall be subject to removal at Buyer's written request, in which event Supplier shall prepare such property for shipment and shall redeliver to Buyer in the same condition as originally received by Supplier, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

23. Material Safety Data Sheets. An appropriate material safety data sheet ("MSDS") and labeling, as and if required by law, will precede or accompany each shipment by Supplier. Further, Supplier shall send to Buyer updated MSDS's and labeling as required by law.

24. Environmental, Safety and Industrial Hygiene Matters. With respect to all environmental, safety and industrial hygiene matters related to Supplier's activities in providing goods and/or services to Buyer, Supplier shall: (a) comply with all applicable laws and regulations issued by federal, state and local authorities; (b) inform Buyer promptly of any significant adverse event (e.g., fires, explosions, accidental discharges) that have the potential of affecting the quality of the goods and/or services to be delivered; (c) inform Buyer promptly of any allegations or findings of violations of applicable laws or regulations that have the potential of affecting the quality of the goods and/or services to be delivered; (d) allow Buyer's representatives to inspect Supplier's facilities, such inspections to be at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice; and (e) implement promptly any corrective action which may be reasonably requested by Buyer, including (without limitation) adhering to reasonable and significant elements of the environmental, safety and industrial hygiene program adhered to by Buyer in its own operations. Supplier shall provide Buyer accurate information concerning ozone depleting or other chemicals or substances used in its products or processes when required by any applicable regulations or laws.

25. Compliance. (a) Any provisions, representations or agreements required by any law or regulation to be included in the contract resulting from acceptance of the PO are hereby incorporated by reference into these terms and conditions, including, but not limited to, those prohibiting discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin, or physical or mental handicap and those providing for the employment of disabled veterans and veterans of the Vietnam era.

(b) Supplier guarantees that no article shipped pursuant to this PO is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, or is an article which may not under the provisions of §404 or §505 of that Act be introduced into interstate commerce.

If Supplier, its personnel or agents assisting Supplier in providing goods or services fail to satisfy any term herein while providing goods or services, Supplier shall notify Buyer in writing within ten (10) days of any such change in status.

(f) While on the premises of Buyer or any of its affiliates (the "Premises"), Supplier shall comply with all rules and regulations while on and applicable to the Premises. Supplier shall be responsible for its personnel and agents while they are on the Premises whether or not any of their actions fall outside the scope and course of employment or engagement by Supplier. Supplier shall ensure that its personnel and agents proceed directly to the site where Services are to be provided and do not enter any other part of the Premises, except as directed by Buyer.

(g) Supplier shall comply with Section 1502 of the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, Rule 13(p)-1 regarding Conflict Minerals. The Template provides a common industry approach for the collection of sourcing information related to conflict minerals. If Supplier is not in compliance with the foregoing, Supplier shall develop, implement and document plans to remedy such non-compliance; provided however, Buyer reserves the right to cancel the PO and pursue all rights and remedies available in equity and at law.

(h) Supplier and any of its permitted subcontractors shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR 60-1.4(a), 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex or national origin. (i) Supplier and any of its permitted subcontractors shall abide by the requirements of 29 CFR Part 471, Appendix A to Subpart A. Appendix A is available at <https://www.dol.gov/olms/regs/compliance/EO13496.htm>. These regulations provide notice of employee rights under the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), the law that governs relations between unions and employers in the private sector.

(j) Supplier shall comply with Buyer's standards applicable to Suppliers that have separately been made known to Supplier in writing.

(k) Supplier shall not perform any actions that are prohibited by local and other anti-corruption laws (collectively "Anti-Corruption Laws") that may be applicable to Supplier and/or Buyer. Without limiting the foregoing, Supplier shall not, directly or indirectly, make any payments, offer or transfer anything of value, agree or promise to make any payment or offer to transfer anything of value, to any government official or government employee, to any political party official or candidate for political office or to any other third party related to the transaction in a manner that would violate Anti-Corruption Laws.

26. Wood Pallets. This clause applies to all products and/or materials shipped to Buyer or its affiliates or authorized locations on wood pallets. Wood pallets must be constructed from lumber sourced from countries that prohibit the treatment of wood with any form of halophenol based chemicals (including but not limited to 2, 4, 6 trichlorophenol, 2, 4, 6 tribromophenol, any of the tetrachlorophenols, any of the tetrabromophenols and pentachlorophenol). Wood pallets used must have been heat treated only, in accordance with the Heat Treatment standards set forth in International Standards for Phytosanitary Measures Publication No. 15, 2009 Revision (ISPM 15). Additionally, the sourced lumber or finished pallets shall not be shipped or stored with pallets or materials that may contain the chemicals mentioned above. While ISPM 15 currently provides for the use of Methyl Bromide (MB), the use of pallets fumigated with Methyl Bromide is also prohibited. All wood pallets must be labeled with the HT stamp in accordance with ISPM 15 Annex II. This requirement is effective immediately. Failure to meet the above requirements of this paragraph may lead to rejection of shipments at Supplier's expense.

27. Dispute Resolution. (a) Governing Law. The laws of the State of Pennsylvania, without regard to principles of conflict of laws or Buyer's principal place of business, will govern these terms and conditions and the PO.

(b) Arbitration. Subject to subsection (c) below, any dispute that might arise between Supplier and Buyer relating to or arising from use of the Site or from the PO or these terms and conditions shall be settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the then prevailing Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), except where those rules conflict with this provision, in which case this provision controls. Arbitration shall be conducted before a single arbitrator selected from the AAA's National Roster of Arbitrators. The arbitration shall be held, and Supplier and Buyer irrevocably consent to arbitrate, in Allentown, Pennsylvania unless they mutually agree upon an alternative location. The arbitration shall be conducted in English. In rendering the award the arbitrator must apply the substantive law of Pennsylvania (except where that law conflicts with this clause), except that the interpretation and enforcement of this arbitration provision shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act. Under no circumstances shall the arbitrator award damages in excess of or inconsistent with the limitations contained in the "Limitation of Liability" section of these terms and conditions. Any court with jurisdiction shall enforce this clause and enter judgment on any award. Supplier and Buyer will agree upon, within 45 days after arbitration is initiated or, if they fail to agree, the AAA will design, procedures that they will follow to assure that the arbitration will be concluded and the award rendered within no more than eight months from selection of the arbitrator. Supplier and Buyer each have the right before or during the mediation or arbitration to seek and obtain from the appropriate court provisional remedies such as attachment, an injunction, replevin, etc., to avoid irreparable harm, maintain the status quo or preserve the subject matter of the arbitration.

(c) Mediation. Prior to initiation of arbitration, Supplier and Buyer must attempt to mediate, within a period of 45 days after the request for mediation, the dispute using a professional mediator from the AAA or like organization selected by agreement or, absent agreement, through selection procedures administered by the AAA. In no event will mediation delay commencement of the arbitration for more than 45 days or interfere with the availability of emergency relief.

(d) No Publicity. The arbitration and mediation proceedings shall be confidential and neither party shall publicize the nature of any dispute or the outcome of any mediation or arbitration proceedings except to the extent required by law, provided in such case the party required to make any disclosure informs the other party of such requirement to allow the other party to seek a protective order. The mediator or arbitrator, as the case may be, shall issue appropriate protective orders to safeguard each party's confidential information.

29. Assignment. The PO and the rights and duties under the PO and these terms and condition shall not be assignable by Supplier without the prior written consent of the Buyer, which consent may be withheld in Buyer's sole discretion. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or elsewhere, Buyer may assign this Agreement, PO's, and its rights and obligations hereunder to any one or more of its affiliates or in connection with the sale of all or substantially all of its equity or assets without any consent. The PO and these terms and conditions shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon Buyer and Supplier and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Nothing contained in the PO or herein shall give to any other person any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim.

30. Relationship. (a) The relationship of Buyer and Supplier is that of independent contractors, and nothing contained herein shall be construed to (i) give either party any right or authority to create or assume any obligation of any kind on behalf of the other or (ii) constitute Buyer and Supplier as partners, joint ventures, co-owners or otherwise as participants in a joint or common undertaking.

(b) Buyer shall not be liable for any of its affiliates under any circumstances.

(c) The relationship between Buyer and Supplier is not one of exclusivity.

31. Miscellaneous. Headings used herein are for convenience only and shall not be used for interpretive purpose. A party's failure to act with respect to another party's breach of any provision contained herein does not constitute a waiver. If any provision herein is held to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be narrowly construed, if possible, or otherwise deemed ineffective and the remaining provisions shall not be affected. The terms and conditions in the PO and herein will survive the fulfillment of the PO.
